PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Genetron Holdings Limited (the “Company”) is unable to file its annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022 (“2022 Form 20-F”) within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense.

The Company expects that the consolidated financial statements to be included in its 2022 Form 20-F will be prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern and will contain a reference of substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company plans to control operating costs and expenses and optimize operational efficiency to improve the Company’s cash flows from operations, continue to raise additional capital, including among others, obtaining debt and equity financing, to support its future operating activities. There can be no assurance, however, that the Company will be able to obtain additional financing on terms acceptable to the Company, on a timely basis or at all.

The Company currently anticipates that it will file the 2022 Form 20-F no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed filing date.

- (2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No
- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Due to the enforcement of the “zero COVID” policy and the resulting sustained travel restrictions across China in 2022, the Company’s business and operating results were negatively impacted. The Company currently estimates its revenue for the year ended December 31, 2022 to be RMB650.7 million, as compared to revenue of RMB532.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2021, representing an increase of 22.3%. The increase in revenue was primarily driven by COVID-19 testing service revenue of RMB250.2 million. The Company also estimates its operating loss to be RMB702.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2022, as compared to RMB517.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2021. The Company expects to incur negative cash flow in operating activities for the year of 2022, a reduction of 12.2% on a year over year basis.

These anticipated changes may subject to further adjustments before filing of the Company’s 2022 Form 20-F.
